DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicants' amendment and remarks, filed May 30, 2006, has been made of record and entered. Claims 1 & 3-7 have been amended.

Claims 1-18 are currently pending.

Status of Withdrawn Claim(s)

2. This application contains claims 8-18, which drawn to an invention nonelected without traverse in Paper No. Dated December 29, 2005. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102(b)/103

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1754

4. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Ying et al., "hereinafter Ying", (US Pat. 6,028,025).

Ying discloses a catalyst comprising: an article having an inorganic surface, the surface including an oxide of a transition metal; and a porphyrin including a catalytic metal atom capable of catalyzing an oxidation reaction of a reactant and an oxidant provided to the catalytic metal atom, etc. (see col. 17, claim 1). The article is a porous inorganic article (see col. 17, claim 5). The article is a regular array of hexagonally-packed or cubic-packed inorganic material (see col. 17, claim 6). Ying further discloses that the article having an inorganic surface comprises a solid phase structure, etc. (see col. 17, claim 8). The solid phase structure includes pores having a mean diameter of at least about 5 Å (or at least 0.5 nm) (see col. 18, claim 18). The surface is a regular array of hexagonally-packed or cubic-packed silica or alumina including Ta or Nb as a dopant present in the structure in an amount of no more than about 25 mol.% (see col. 18, claim 19).

There is no patentable distinction seen between the claimed porous ceramic material and that disclosed by Ying, thus the claims are anticipated by the teaching of the reference.

Product-by-process limitations in the claims are noted. While the product of the reference is not made by the same process, the product made is the same as being claimed. It has been held that the patentability of the product and its method of production are separately determined. Thus, the process limitations in the claims have no bearing on the patentability of the claimed product. See In re Thorpe, 227 USPQ 964 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Brown, 173 USPQ 688, 688 (CCPA 1977); In re Fessman, 180 USPQ 324, 326 (CCPA 1977). See also MPEP 2113.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102(e)/103

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-5 & 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over McGrath et al., "hereinafter McGrath", (US Pat. 6,638,885).

McGrath discloses a mesoporous ceramic fiber having a pore size diameter in the range of about 10-100 nanometers (see col. 16, claim 1). The ceramic precursor is a salt or alkoxide of titanium (see col. 16, claim 4).

There is no patentable distinction seen between the claimed porous ceramic material and that disclosed by McGrath, thus the claims are anticipated by the teaching of the reference.

Product-by-process limitations in the claims are noted. While the product of the reference is not made by the same process, the product made is the same as being claimed. It has been held that the patentability of the product and its method of production are separately determined. Thus, the process limitations in the claims have no bearing on the patentability of the claimed product. See In re Thorpe, 227 USPQ 964 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Brown, 173 USPQ 688, 688 (CCPA 1977); In re Fessman, 180 USPQ 324, 326 (CCPA 1977). See also MPEP 2113.

Response to Applicants' Arguments

7. Applicants' response, filed on 5/30/06, to the office action dated 2/28/06 has been fully considered, but not deemed persuasive in view of the new ground of rejection(s) and/or objection(s) above.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1754

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Conclusion

9. Claims 1-18 are pending. Claims 1-7 are rejected. Claims 8-18 remain withdrawn due to nonelected (distinct) inventions. No claims are allowed.

10. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Cam N. Nguyen whose telephone number is 571-272-1357. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, 9:00 AM - 6:30 PM, at alternative work site.
